ing for guardianship of the above-named children under RCW 11.130.185. If the Minor Guardianship Petition is approved, the rights of the parents or legal custodians could be substantially restricted. 2. You must respond to this summons and petition by serving a copy of your written response on the person signing this summons, any other party, and by filing the original response with the clerk of the court. If you do not serve your written response within 20 days after the date this summons was served on you (or 60 days if you are served outside of the state of Washington), exclusive of the day of service, the court may enter an order of default against you and the court may, without further notice to you, enter an order and approve or provide for the relief requested in the petition. If the petition has not been filed, you may demand that the petitioner file this lawsuit with the court. If you do so, the demand must be in writing and must be served upon the person signing this summons. Within 14 days after you serve the demand, the petitioner must file this lawsuit with the court, or the service on you of this summons and petition will be void. 3. If you wish to seek the advice of a lawyer in this matter, you should do so promptly so that your written response, if any, may be served on time. 4. This summons is issued pursuant to rule 4 of the Superior Court Civil Rules of the State of Washington. Important! Read the Notice of Hearing for information about your rights and how to respond. SUPERIOR COURT OF WASHINGTON, COUNTY OF PIERCE In re parentage: Petitioner: LARRY ARMSTRONG, Respondents: DANIELLE ARMSTRONG, JASON MICHAELSON. No. 23-3-03779-0 SUMMONS: NOTICE ABOUT PETITION FOR DE FACTO PARENTAGE (SM) Summons: Notice about Petition for De Facto Parentage To Respondents: Petitioner started a case to ask the court to order that Petitioner is the de facto parent of the child listed in the petition. A de facto parent is a legal parent with all of the same rights and responsibilities as any other parent.

More information about de facto parent law is provided at the bottom of this form. Deadline! Your Response must be served on the Petitioner within 20 days of the date you were served this Summons (or 60 days if you were served outside of Washington State). If the case has been filed, you must also file your Response by the same deadline. If you do not serve and file your Response or a Notice of Appearance by the deadline: No one has to notify you about other hearings in this case, and The court may approve the Petitioner's requests without hearing your side (called a default judgment). Follow these steps: 1. Read the Petition and any other documents you receive with this Summons. These documents explain what the Petitioner is asking for. 2. Fill out the Response to Petition for De Facto Parentage (FL Parentage 342). You can get the Response and other forms at: Washington State Court Forms: www.courts.wa.gov/forms, Washington LawHelp: www.washingtonlawhelp.org, Washington State Law Library: www.courts.wa.gov/library, or Superior Court Clerk's office or county law library (for a fee). 3. Serve (give) a copy of your Response to the Petitioner at the address below and to any other Respondents. You may use certified mail with return receipt requested. For more information on how to serve, read Superior Court Civil Rule 5. 4. File your original Response with the court clerk at this address: Superior Court Clerk, Pierce County 930 Tacoma Ave. S, Rm 110, Tacoma WA 98402 If there is no "Case No." listed on page 1, this case may not have been filed and you will not be able to file a Response. Contact the Superior Court Clerk to find out. If the case was not filed, you must still serve your Response, and you may demand that the Petitioner file this case with the court. Your demand must be in writing and must be served on the Petitioner or his/her lawyer (whoever signed this Summons). If the Petitioner does not file papers for this case within 14 days of being served with your demand, this service on you of the Summons and Petition will not be valid. If the Petitioner does file, then you must file your original Response with the court clerk at the address above. 5. Lawyer not required: It's a good idea to talk to a lawyer, but you may file and serve your Response without one. 6. Information about De Facto Parentage Under Washington law, to be a de facto parent, the Petitioner must show that: Petitioner lived with the child in the child's household for a significant period. Petitioner provided consistent caretaking of the child and undertook full and permanent responsibilities of a parent without expectation of financial compensation. Petitioner held the child out as his/her child. Petitioner established a bonded and dependent relationship with the child which is parental in nature. Another parent of the child fostered or supported the Petitioner's bonded, dependent relationship. Continuing the Petitioner's relationship with the child is in the child's best interest. Read RCW 26.26A.440 for more information about the de facto parent law. There is a two-step process in de facto parentage cases. Step 1: The court will consider the facts claimed in the Petition, and any Response, to decide if the case should go forward. Either you or the Petitioner may ask for this review using the Request for Court Review, FL Parentage 343. The court may decide without a hearing or may set a hearing, if necessary. The case will end at Step 1 unless the court finds that the Petitioner meets the standard for the case to go forward. Step 2: The court will hold a trial to decide whether or not the Petitioner is a de facto parent. Petitioner or his lawyer fills out below Signature of Petitioner or lawyer /s/ Jason L. Johnson Date 11/9/23 Print name (and WSBA No., if lawyer) Jason L. Johnson, WSBA No. 31813 I agree to accept legal papers for this case at: [x] my lawyer's address: 705 S 9th St., Ste 201 Tacoma WA 98405 Email (if applicable): jason@torronelaw.com Note: You and the other party/ies may agree to accept legal papers by email under Civil Rule 5 and local court rules. If this address changes before the case ends, you must notify all parties and the court clerk in writing. You may use the Notice of Address Change form (FL All Family 120). You must also update your Confidential Information Form (FL All Family 001) if this case involves parentage or child support. VII The Trustee's sale will be held in accordance with Ch. 61.24 RCW and anyone wishing to bid at the sale will be required to have in his/her possession at the time the bidding commences, cash, cashier's check, or certified check in the amount of at least one dollar over the Beneficiary's opening bid. In addition, the successful bidder will be required to pay the full amount of his/her bid in cash, cashier's check, or certified check within one hour of the making of the bid. The Trustee whose name and address are set forth below will provide in writing to anyone requesting it, a statement of all costs and fees due at any time prior to the sale. VIII The effect of the sale will be to deprive the grantor and all those who hold by, through or under the grantor of all their interest in the above described property. IX Anyone having any objections to the sale on any grounds whatsoever will be afforded an opportunity to be heard as to those objections if they bring a lawsuit to restrain the same pursuant to RCW 61.24.130. Failure to bring such a lawsuit may result in a waiver of any proper grounds for invalidating the Trustee's sale. Michelle R. Ghidotti, Esq. c/o Gary Krohn, Reg. Agent 144 Railroad Avenue, Suite 236 Edmonds, WA 98020-4100 Phone: (206) 331-3280 X The obligation secured by the Deed of Trust being foreclosed herein was not incurred primarily for personal, family or household purposes. Pursuant to RCW 61.24.100, the subject foreclosure does not preclude any judicial or nonjudicial foreclosure of any other deeds of trust, mortgage, security agreements or other security interests granted to secure this obligation. The Beneficiary hereby reserves its right to foreclose any or all additional security. XI Notice To Guarantors The guarantors may be liable for a deficiency judgment to the extent the sale price obtained at the Trustee's sale is less than the debt secured by the Deed of Trust. The guarantors have the same rights to reinstate the debt, cure the default, or repay the debt as is given to the grantor in order to avoid the Trustee's sale. The guarantors will have no rights to redeem the property after the Trustee's sale. Subject to such longer periods as are provided in the Washington deed of trust act, chapter 61.24 RCW, any action brought to enforce a guaranty must be commenced within one year after the trustee's sale, or the last trustee's sale under any deed of trust granted to secure the same debt. In any action for deficiency, the guarantors will have the right to establish the fair value of the property as of the date of the Trustee's sale, less prior liens and encumbrances, and to limit its liability for a deficiency to the difference between the debt and the greater of such fair value or the sale price paid at the Trustee's sale, plus interest and costs. XII Notice To Occupants Or Tenants - The purchaser at the trustee's sale is entitled to possession of the property on the 20th day following the sale, as against the grantor or under the Deed of Trust (the owner) and anyone having an interest junior to the Deed of Trust, including occupants who are not tenants. After the 20th day following the sale the purchaser has the right to evict occupants who are not tenants by summary proceedings under chapter 59.12 RCW. For tenant-occupied property, the purchaser shall provide a tenant with written notice in accordance with RCW 61.24.060. If you are a servicemember or a dependent of a servicemember, you may be entitled to certain protections under the federal Servicemembers Civil Relief Act and any comparable state laws regarding the risk of foreclosure. If you believe you may be entitled to these protections, please contact our office immediately. Additional disclaimers provided by the Trustee: If you have previously been discharged through bankruptcy, you may have been released of personal liability for this loan in which case this letter is intended to exercise the noteholders rights against the real property only.

NOTICE MITIGATED DETERMINATION OF NON-SIGNIFICANCE The City of Puyallup, as lead agency on the following described project, has issued a Mitigated Determination of Non-Significance (MDNS) under the State Environmental Policy Act Rules (Chapter 197-11 WAC) for the following project: Permit # PLPSP20230096 Applicant: Matt Reeves Location: 325 TODD RD NW, PUYALLUP, WA 98371 Staff Contact: Rachael N. Brown, Associate Planner, 2537703363, RN-Brown@PuyallupWA.gov Request: Construction of a new Puget Sound Energy (PSE) Operational Training Center (OTC). Construction will include a new training building, approx. 34,000 sq ft which will include office, commercial, and training/classroom spaces. An outdoor training facility will be constructed, consisting of field area, and approx. 2,500 of enclosed spaces for storage of materials. Associated parking lots, landscaping, storm-water management facilities, and other utilities will be constructed as part of this project. This facility is not a part of the PSE electrical power generation or utility service, it is solely a training facility. Comments Due Date: N/A SEPA Status: SEPA Determination Issued After review of a completed environmental checklist and other information on file, the City of Puyallup has determined this proposal will not have a probable significant adverse impact on the environment. To obtain copies of the MDNS, please visit https://permits.puyallupwa.gov/portal/, select 'Application Search' from the 'Planning Division' section to navigate to the Planning Division Permit Application Search page. Enter the permit #PLPSP20230096 into the search field and select the permit number from the search list to navigate to the permit status page for this permit. Scroll to the bottom of the page to view a list of all documents associated with the permit file, including the SEPA MDNS. Comments Consistent with WAC 197-11-355, the Lead Agency issued a Notice of Application on September 29, 2023 with a single integrated comment period to obtain comments on the notice of application and the likely threshold determination for the proposal. Therefore, consistent with the 'optional DNS process' outlined in WAC 197-11-355, there is no comment period for the subject MDNS. Appeals Consistent with WAC 197-11-545 regarding commenting parties and agencies, an appeal of the subject MDNS may be filed via a written request with the SEPA Responsible Official by applicable parties and agencies within 10 days of the issuance of this MDNS, or by 3:00 pm on April 29, 2024. Please call the case planner listed above prior to submission of an appeal to make arrangements for submittal of the appeal documents. Published in the Tacoma Weekly & Dispatch April 17, 2024
